John A. Drake Plunges on Them-Right Royal Wins the Amsterdam Selling Stakes-Bivouac Scores for Raymond Belmont.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 27 .- A heavy downpour of rain during the forenoon dampened the ardor of racing enthusiasts, as evidenced by the light attend ance at the track, and also spoiled one of the most pretentions and attractive cards of the meeting. Withdrawals sadly depleted the majority of the seven races. The track proper resembled a muddy canal and some of the most pronounced upsets of the season developed with the defeat of John A. Drake's pair of prohibitive favorites, Broadcloth and Grapple. The former, carrying a stable commission of $20,000, as well as a majority of the general pub-lic's wagers, led off by running second to the long shot Bertha E. in the opening race at seven furlongs. Presumably few benefited by the victory of Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s Paul Jones in the cross-country affair that followed, the steadily receding price about him indicating that he was ignored in fav r of Maximillan and when the latter came to grief, the specu latively inclined public fell with him.

J. C. Core came to the talent's rescue in the third, but, even though he appeared to far outclass his mpetitors, there was a tendency to play all around e Newcastle Stable's crack.

the Newcastle Stable's crack. Grapple, at odds-on in the Amsterdam Selling Stakes, at one mile, was apparently the horse with which to recoup previous losses. John A. Drake led a misguided plunge by placing a big commis-sion on the Metropolitan Handicap winner. The magnificent cripple Right Royal, at long odds, took his measure in benumbing as well as decisive fash-ion.

There was not much business doing in the ring after that. The fifth was a grab bag selling affair five and a half furlongs for two-year-old maidens bookmakers again had the best of the argument The b laying a ridiculously short price against highly tried winner Animus. There were seventeen good things in this race, all in receipt of more or less support. It was a close thing between three the finish.

Raymond Belmont won his first victory on the American turf with Bivonac in the mile and a fur-long handicap. The Hastings mare was a lukewarm favorite throughout the betting and probably carried less money than either Yorkshire Lad or Sonoma Belle. Bivonac, lightly weighted, practically won all the way and after the race experts entertained an excellent impression of her capacity. Sailor Boy's forward running astounded onlookers who recalled his backward showing in his preceding race in the muddy going when "Father Bill" Daly excused the horse's bad race by explaining that he could not run on that kind of a track.

Billy Cahill rode his apprentice boy Beckman on Billy Caniff rode his apprentice by becknan on Morthoy in the last race and scored. The Albert colt's victory cost him dear, U. Z. De Arman "boosting" him from $500 to $2,000, the owner buying him in for an extra $5. Sir Russell has been bought by Ed Gaylord, of Denver. The price was not divulged.

"LUCKY" BALDWIN IS AT LAKE TAHOE.

"Reports have come recently from various points in Canada to the effect that 'Lucky' Baldwin was sojourning in the Dominion in search of relief from a complication of diseases, the least of which was threatened blindness, and that his chances for recovery were so poor that the 'eminent physicians in charge of him' gave the opinion that the veteran

Twenty-two Races Receive 708 Nominations-Three year-old Steeplechasers Named for Harbor Hill.

For its coming autumn meeting, the Westchester Racing Association received highly satisfactory entries to its stakes which closed August 15. Nearly all of the desirable horses of the present day wer nominated and racing of the highest class is assured for the grand Belmont Park course. As a rule horses are now at their best and entries are of those in the highest development of training, fit and ready to race any day. For that reason an entry list of twenty-five or thirty horses now represents more racing probabilities than one of double the number in the spring.

umber in the spring. Besides making public the nominations referred the club has also announced the list of eligible to the two divisions of the rich and important Matron Stakes. For the colts' division, there are thirty-seven eligibles and for the fillies', twenty-thirty-seven eligibles and for the fillies', twenty-fye. Among the colts that may start are such good ones as Peter Pan, Ballot, Zambesl, Grimaldi. Oran. thirty-s five. McCarter, Old Honesty, Okenite, Don Enrique, Hard-shot, Chaseaway, Yankee Gun, Aletheuo and Faust. while in the division for fillies Pope Joan, Glamor Yankee Girl, Fantastic and Sally K. have shown best. Some high bred fillies that have not started are in the list and may have been saved expressly for the Matron. Apparently it may be in store for James R. Keene to land both divisions. The two long distance races, the Municipal Handicap and the Beimont Park Autumn Weight for Age Race, re-ceived gratifying supplementary nominations and m assured in both.

The entries to the various events closed are follows:

FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Corinthian Open; about 2 1.2 miles Brook Cup; about 3 miles Harbor Hill Cup; about 2 miles Autumn Meadowbrook; about 3 miles Eighth Champion (supplementary); about 3 1.2 miles 1

As always, steeplechasing will be an important feature of the Belmont Park antumn meeting. The Champion will naturally be the star event in this line and has in its list the three imported jumpers John M. P., Phil May and Desert Chief. Aside from this race, the Harbor Hill Cup will attract the most attention. This is the event endowed by Clar-ence Mackay, for three-year-olds and designed as a ence mackay, for three-year-olds and designed as a fosterer for jumpers of the future. Mr. Mackay adds $3,000 and a cup. The latter has to be won twice before becoming the property of the holder. Last year Mr. Cotton won it with Delcanta. The entries to this interesting event are as follows:

H. Avery's ch. g. Dr. Hellsworth, by Dr. Sam-Easy Stride. Bonniebrook Stable's ch. g. Dick Shaw, by Ban-astar-Agnodice; b. g. Matumick, by Chorister or Parachute-Tilt. C. F. Clark's br. g. Jurist, by Bassetlaw-Royal Liebt.

George C. Bennett, the Memphis turfman, owner of Dishabille and Ethon, is pardonably elated over the excellent performances of those two products of his own breeding establishment. He also boasts "has something on" some breeders who hail from the Blue Grass region, particularly Tom Stevens and Tom McDowell. This is how he told it to the Morning Telegraph at Saratoga Saturday: "Why, those fellows made all kinds of fun of

of the "Kidding" of Tom Stevens and Tom

me and my farm when I began breeding. That old Tom Stevens said I was trying to raise horses on a 'sandbar to win stakes and purses from Kentuckybred horses. And that doggone Tom McDowell told people that every time a spear of grass made its appearance on my farm I made a nigger hurry and chain it down so that a little high water from the Mississippi wouldn't wash it away.

"Neither has anything on me just now. I think I have a shade on them. While Tom Stevens is racing his blue grass horses away out in the bushes at Seattle and other points in the Puget Sound at seattle and other points in the ruget sound country, my sandbar nags are performing in swell company and winning swell races. As for Tom McDowell, he is here with a stable, but has no horses that he dare start against that little four-year-old Dishabille nor a two-year-old that he will stark up against my coll Ethon. Of course he knows that my mare won the Merchants' Handicap and carried 126 pounds, but for fear he will try to forget it I would like to refresh his memory by calling attention to the fact that on the fourth of July at Sheepshead Bay Ethon won the Spring Stakes and Dischaling the Locar Jahand Handican. Stakes and Dishabille the Long Island Handleap, and folks tell me they finished like horses that had something to eat while growing.

"But the fun poked at me by Stevens and Mc-Dowell was not all that happened to me when I became a breeder. My trainer actually quit me when I said I would buy no more yearlings, but depend on the produce of my own mares. That was the reason why Henry McDaniel, as nice a fellow as anybed; would would to more a graduinder of a as anybody would want to know, a good judge of a racehorse and a first-class man in charge of a stable, left my employ. He was not pleased with my youngsters as yearlings, and actually disliked them as two-year-olds. Dishabille was so little and ran so poorly in her trials that Henry declared her out of all her engagements

"Mickey Shannon developed Dishabille. I s him to St. Louis with nine horses to race and sell if possible, and she was one of the lot. He took a fancy to her directly after he got charge of her and didn't start her until the middle of July. She hadn't been racing long before she was recog-nized as a good filly. Mickey was authorized to sell her, but he wouldn't do it. I let him have his Whenever she starts own way and am glad I did. Whenever she star Mickey will have a bet on her. He thinks she the greatest mare in the world.

"My farm is located in Shelby County, Tennessee twelve miles from Memphis. It contains 1.120 acres and last year I had enough pasture for 500 horses We have in that section a clover that beats any grass of which I know. We don't have to cultivate it. All that is necessary to get a bountiful crop is to cut it and let it grow again. And when it is made into hay horses will leave any blue grass that ever was seen and go after it. "It is called lespedeza. We don't know where it came from, but some old residents of the vicinity claim it was brought there by the Yankees during The United States Agricultural De the civil war. partment has sent agents there to study the nature of it and to analyze it, and they reported that it contains more nutriment than any grass. So you So you can understand that my horses are not likely to suffer for want of food. "My stud is comprised of five stallions and thirtyfive mares. The stallions are King's Counsel (sire of Dishabille), Intrusive, Abe Frank, Sam Phillips and Lucky Dog. King's Counsel was imported in utero, his dam, Dazzling Light, being in foal to Queen's Counsel when she was brought here from Evaluate (the day and the she was brought here from Charles Head Smith, of Chicago, paid England. $2,700 for him as a yearling. He showed fast trials and promised to be a good racehorse, but broke down before he could demonstrate his class. In the stud he has made good as the sire of Dishabille. If Ethon does as well as I expect him to, people will have some respect for Intrusive as a sire. Any how, I guess the produce of my farm will be able to hold its own against anything Tom Stevens or Tom McDowell will bring to the races." Mickey Shannon, who left for Lexington Saturday vith Bob Tucker's yearlings, said Mr. Bennett * Dishabille is the greatest mare in the When I took her to St. Louis he priced $700. Barney Schreiber offered me $1,500 right. country. her at $700. for her and didn't get her. I was sure she was a good filly and that's why she continues to carry the green, white diamonds."

HEAVY LOSSES FOR TALENT. | BELMONT PARK'S AUTUMN STAKE ENTRIES. GEORGE C. BENNETT PROUD OF HIS HORSES. | CHIEF MILLIKIN A ROWDY.

DELAYS THE START AND THEN PINS DON DOMO TO THE FENCE.

Judges at Latonia Will Bar Him from Racing-Seven Favorites Fail-Heavy Track Causes

Upsets-Many Withdrawals.

Cincinnati, O., August 27 .- Form calculations went wrong this afternoon. This was attributed to the heavy and holding track. The defeat of seven favorites was a hard blow to the talent. Nicol's followers also booked heavy losses. He failed to pilot a winner during the afternoo

There were only four starters in the third race. Chief Millikin, because of his known liking for muddy going, was at odds-on and well supported. After a thresome delay at the post, caused by the fractiousness of Don Domo and Chief Millikin, tarter Holtman raised the barrier when he thought he had them in proper alignment. The only one to leave promptly, however, was Hector, Elastic following him five lengths back. Chief Millikin bolted to the outer rail and catching Don Domo pinned him there until the other two were fully a sixteenth in advance. Preston, by a liberal application of the whip, fought Chief Millikin away and set sail for the flying leaders. He closed a tre-mendous gap and forced Hector to a hard drive to outlast him to the finish. Chief Millikin also a notion to run after trailing in the rear for the first quarter, and, heading Elastic, secured third money. After the finish the judges ordered that the entry of Chief Millikin be refused in future.

The steeplechase resulted in an easy victory for John Dillon. This horse fenced well and was favored by the going. Frank Mc fell over the water jump and for a while it appeared as if his rider had been badly hurt. He came to after a lapse of several minutes and showed no ill-effects from his tumble.

Pirate's Dance also fell, no damage resulting. Shipments continue daily to Douglas Park and visitors who spent Sunday at the new plant in the visitors who spent Sunday at the new plant in the Falls City, report that things are in shape for the reception of horsemen. The appointments of the track are complete in every particular. Among the stables quartered there, is that of H. R. Baker, who will probably send Broomhandle to the post in the handleap on the opening day. Triumphant was badly cut down in his race Satur-day and will have to be thrown out of training for some time.

"BOOSTING" OF OSTRICH CAUSES A ROW.

The buying of Ostrich out of a selling race at Saratoga Saturday afternoon by John McGinnis, led to a lively quarrel in the paddock after the race between McGinnis and John Hynes, former trainer of the horse. McGinnis wanted the horse delivered of the horse. McGinnis wanted the horse delfy to him without formality immediately after he returned to the paddock, to the end that he might be cooled out by one of his (McGinnis') men. "Hynes, who was as angry as a hornet over losing the horse, positively refused to yield the horse until McGinnis produced an order from the judges direct-ing him to," says the Morning Telegraph.

"Hynes and McGinnis called each other names and McGinnis assured the crowd which gathered to see the fun that he had $5,000 with which to make good any obligations he might contract, and that he had got it honestly. Hynes expressed doubt as to both propositions, and absolutely declined to

At about the time the dispatch referred to was sent throughout the country 'Lucky' Baldwin was a guest of his friend, Richard H. A few weeks ago he departed Lake Tahoe to pass several weeks at his hotel, which is under the management of M. Lawrence manager of Baldwin's Oakwood Hotel at Arcadia, and Lawrence is with him."

BAD TRACK AT WINDSOR.

Detroit, Mich., August 27.-The rain of yesterday left the Windsor track slow and lumpy today. Consequently, withdrawals were plentiful and the third race was declared off entirely. Another for four-year-olds and upward, at a mile, was substituted. Three favorites rewarded the talent and all of them won handily enough with the exception of For in the first, which was put to the hardest kind of a drive to beat out Operator, the 25 to 1 chance. The feature of the card was the handicap at five and a half furlongs, for two-year-olds. Minot appeared the best and rewarded the confidence of her backers by cantering home two lengths in front of Salvisa take McGinnis' word for anything. Friends inter vened before anything serious came out of their quarrel. Hynes is riled at losing Ostrich because the Order colt, who won the Crescent City Derby three seasons back, is just rounding into condition. He is one of the serviceable platers in training. But McGinnis will have to bet heavily every time he starts Ostrich in a selling race. For Hynes and he starts Ostrich in a seiling face. For Hynes and Sexton, the horse's former owner, swear they will make it hot for the young man from Brooklyn. If, however, McGinnis had not taken Ostrich Sexton would have lost him in another direction. Jack Bennet announced in the clubhouse after the horse was knocked down, that McGinnis anticipated him."

Saratoga, N. Y., August 27.-A. L. Aste has pre-sented the horse Champlain to the bureau of breeding. Champlain is by Gonsalvo, out of Lillian Belle, and was bred at Huricanna Farm. While not a horse of much racing class, he is a good individual, and if he passes the rigid inspection of the com-mittee for soundness should be of good service.

Wenter-Oh, g, by Garly Hermann-Purity (trained by I. Welen). Went to post at 3:11. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily: third driving. J. C. Core, from a flying start, relinquished the lead to They're Off and was held in reserve to the stretch, where he passed the latter as if he was anchored and won pulling up. They're Off, in a superior display of speed, raced ioto the lead and readily succumbed to the winner in the stretch, but held the others safe. Lally began slewly, but closed up rapidly in the last half into a fast going third. Umbrella finished like a shot. Veronique, nearly left, made up cousiderable ground at the end. Glenham failed to sthy after showing superior speed for three furthors and will improve. Sir William Johnson, evidently handicapped by the going, petited after a moderate display of early speed. Scratched-6437 Dry Dollar, 98. Overweights-Veronique. 4 pounds.
